

Health and Safety Policy Statement

The Health and Safety at Work (Northern Ireland) Order 2000
Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1999 (GB)
Safety, Health & Welfare at Work Act 2005 (ROI)

Smet Building Products Ltd.

Smet Building Products Ltd. are committed to discharging our obligations in accordance with above order and acts. Health & Safety is a key element and contributor in the overall success of our business performance, therefore it has equal priority with other aspects of business management and will be managed with the same determination and commitment. Any business decisions made will take full account of any Health and Safety implications.

We will provide adequate resources and seek to provide a healthy & safe working environment for all of our employees. We will endeavour to ensure the safety of all others who could be foreseeably affected by activities under our control.

It is the business' aim to promote, continually improve and maintain the highest standards for health, safety and welfare matters. This will be achieved by:

- providing adequate control of the health and safety risks arising from the work activities;
- providing and maintaining safe equipment;
- ensuring safe handling and use of substances;
- providing information, instruction and supervision for employees;
- ensuring all employees are competent to do their tasks;
- maintaining safe and healthy working conditions.
- Adhering to all applicable legal requirements within the jurisdiction.

In addition to the above, the business will ensure that there is:

- measures in place to prevent accidents and cases of work-related ill health;
- regular consultation with employees on matters affecting health and safety;

Health and Safety within the business is viewed as 'everyone's business. To achieve a high standard of health & safety, the active co-operation of all Employees is essential.

Employees are reminded of their own duties under the law,

1. To take care of their own safety and that of other persons,
2. To co-operate fully with their employer so as to enable them to carry out their responsibilities successfully.

This Policy and associated documents will be used to set improvement objectives and will be revised annually, or after any significant change to the business or legislation likely to affect the Policy. This Policy will be publicised within the business and available to third parties on request.
